MRS. JAMES DOUGLAS MARSHALL, JR.
the former Miss Rita Gay Ferguson

Wed in Evening Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Rita Gay Ferguson to James Douglas Marshall, Jr. took place on Saturday evening, June 23, at eight o'clock in Liberty Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Ferguson, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Douglas Marshall, Sr., all of Appomattox.

The Rev. Rex J. Bennett, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Charlene R. Lawson, soloist, accompanied by Mrs. J. Franklin Vaughan, organist.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a gown fashioned completely of white chantilly lace. The princess bodice featured a peaked waistline and the sheer lace neckline was outlined in a scoop of ruffles. The sleeves were long and bell from the elbows with tiers of chantilly lace. The full cut skirt had a bustled up overskirt look with a lace tiered petticoat. A triple row of chantilly lace ruffles edged the attached chapel length train. Her veil of bridal illusion was fingertip length edged in chantilly lace. Her flat tiara cap was covered in chantilly lace and decorated with pearls.

The bride carried a cascade of white rosebuds, stephanotis, centered with a white orchid and accented throughout with baby's breath.

Miss Sandra Kay Ferguson was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a gown of blue polyester organza. The sleeve ruffle and skirt ruffle were edged in a white picot lace. She carried a nosegay of white and blue daisies accented throughout with baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Miss Gloria Ann Ferguson, sister of the bride, of Appomattox; Mrs. Thomas Keith Ferguson, sister-in-law of the bride, of Lexington, N.C.; Miss Mary Katharine Marshall, sister of the groom, of Appomattox; and Mrs. George W. Feagan, cousin of the bride, of Lynchburg. Their gowns were identical to that of the honor attendant and they carried nosegays of the same.

Mr. Marshall was his son's best man and ushers were Mr. Thomas Keith Ferguson, brother of the bride, of Lexington, N.C.; Mr. Richard C. Lewis, Jr., cousin of the groom, of Appomattox; Mr. Bill Richardson, cousin of the groom, of Appomattox; and Mr. Jerry Conner of Appomattox.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ferguson chose a gown of soft pink knitted chiffon. The bodice featured a matching venise lace trim on the open neckline, sheer bishop sleeves and a graceful full skirt.

Mrs. Marshall, mother of the groom, selected a gown of pistachio chiffon. Her dress featured a blousen draped top and full pleated skirt.

Mrs. June Chenault and Mrs. Edith Scruggs, both of Appomattox, were mistresses of ceremonies.

Attending the guest register were Mrs. Debbie M. Guthrie, of Appomattox and Miss Diane Edgeworth, cousin of the bride, of Rural Hall, N.C.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox County High School and is presently employed by Craddock-Terry Shoe Corporation.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Prince Edward Academy in Farmville and received a B.A. degree in Health and Physical Education from Lynchburg College in May. He is presently employed by King's Market in Appomattox.

After a southern wedding trip the couple will live in Appomattox.
